There are no specific financial requirements placed on the local groups for our service.

UNI-COM Foundation

California is alive with activity in parapsychology, metaphysics and other significant areas of human growth potential. Uni-Com Foundation directly supports this activity by serving as its information hub.

The major service which the Foundation now provides is UNI-COM GUIDE, a monthly calendar of spiritual and personal awareness activities scheduled throughout California. This popular publication allows "new age" organizations to announce in advance the dates and contents of their meetings to a large and interested audience of individuals and other organizations. The cost of publishing UNI-COM GUIDE is supported by paid advertising and by modest subscription fees of $3/year, or $5/two years.

In the process of gathering information for UNI-COM GUIDE, the Foundation becomes aware of leaders who are available for service in counseling, speaking, teaching, research, seminars and retreats. Frequently this awareness, discreetly coupled to organization needs for such talent, results in effective new relationships. Uni-Com Foundation does not solicit funds for this and other informal services but is supported by those who see the value of such work and voluntarily wish to become a sustaining part of it.

Uni-Com Foundation is a non-profit and non-denominational corporation which lovingly encourages the achievement of a loving society. Uni-Com also offers two additional services of a mail order book catalogue and a small monthly pamphlet of articles by Metaphysical teachers.

Roy Eugene Davis

YOUR DAILY MEDITATION GUIDE

Meditation is defined as "the practice of soul-remembering." It is our time to relax the conscious mind and remain alert in the superconscious (transcendental) state of consciousness.

The benefits are well-documented: physical relaxation, peace of mind, increased awareness and the release of latent potential. Meditation practice is not difficult—and anyone can participate. All that is required is an understanding of the process and the will to spend a few minutes a day devoted to inward contemplation.

Any quiet time of the day is ideal for meditation. Most people, however, find that mornings and evenings are best. Early in the day is an excellent time to clear the mind and adjust the attitude for things to come. Evening meditation offers the opportunity to release any (possible) emotional-thought patterns we might have accumulated during times of stress.

The Technique Itself

Simply set aside twenty or thirty minutes for undisturbed practice. Sit in a relaxed position: either on a chair or on the floor, whichever is most comfortable. Breathe in, and out, deeply—for a moment or two. This intentional act will bring all attention-units to the here and now. This, in itself, is a useful act—for we often tend to live out our days with a confused mind, and scattered thoughts.

If you are accustomed to a moment of prayer or invocation, in order to become attuned to the Life Process—this comes next. Your attention will then be led from mundane cares to thoughts of God and high aspiration.

Now, relax from conscious effort—do not visualize, carry on mental discussions or force any result. Be still. Be very still—with an open and receptive attitude.

If thoughts wander, if the mind is restless: use any convenient technique or method. Such practices are only for the purpose of flowing attention to the real source. Your personal way may be: aspiring unto the highest perception, the use of a potent mantra, the practice of Kriya Yoga, attunement with the Universal Sound Current (Aum or OM), or the practice of Self-inquiry. In the latter instance we have but to gently inquire within, "Who am I? What is my real nature and essence?" The great sage, Sri Ramana Maharshi said, "By steady and continuous investigation into the nature of the mind, the mind is transformed into That to which the 'I' refers, and that is verily the Self (Soul)." His was the way of "wisdom-yoga"—the proper use of the faculty of discernment to realize the essential truth.

All master-teachers have shared the same basic information; we can become enlightened if we but learn to repent, to "turn back to the Source" at times of inward contemplation.

We all have a personal meditation-cycle. We turn within, rise to the highest point in perception, then drop back to the awareness of "this world." As we practice on a regular basis our "highest point of perception" becomes longer in duration. This is the natural way.

The secret to meditation-success is to avoid strain. As we contemplate the highest ideal, with one-pointed attention, the waves of the mind automatically subside. The mind clears itself; we do not then need: affirmation, controlled-effort or hypnotic commands. Proper meditation is a "beyond the mind" experience—it is our opportunity to rejoice in the superconscious realm.

When coming out of meditation—do it gradually. In this way relate inner awareness to outer realities. There will be a feed-down of superconscious perception; down through the mental field, the brain and nervous system and then into the body. The results will be: a clear mental field, a balanced emotional condition and a harmonious functioning at the physical level. One will in time, also, notice a better working-relationship with others and a natural attunement and understanding of the total environment.

We see, therefore, that regular meditation practice does not result in withdrawal from "this world"—on the contrary—our conscious participation with the Life Process is enhanced. We learn to live without compulsive attachments or strong aversions because, to us (in our new understanding) everything is an expression of One Thing.

Supreme Consciousness, in the transcendental and manifest aspect is the only Reality. In This we move and have our total expression. With the sages, we know—"I am immortal, I am changeless, I am the essence of Life."

FROM THE DIRECTOR

The material that is coming into the office these day no longer says, "We gave you instructions to be prepared in your own mind about things to come.", but now says, "You should have done it!" This, of course immediately relays to the brain panic, fear, hurry and do this and do that. Enough of that is taking place. Now is the time for all new age students, seekers after the truth, to listen to what the teachers have been saying for low these many years and do not press the panic button. Think about what the teachers have said, and listen to your inner voice of guidance and become calm and peaceful and know that with God all things are possible. Everyone has heard of prayer and of meditation and of Light Work. But how many are doing it? In order for things to take place correctly in our own lives we must help things take place correctly around us. We cannot force our will on those around us, but we can ask the powers that be to assist in setting things straight. If you don't believe in prayer or Light Work, or don't know what they mean, go to some one who does. Many groups are in existence today that do nothing but prayer and Light Work. Many books have been written about it. Many teachers are teaching it. If you feel that you are not capable of doing the above, develop a system of positive projection. Mental thought is important. Each word that we think or say is power in motion. Start by projecting positive action in your own inner being, your own life. Then expand it out to encompass the room you are in, then out to include the place where you live. Remember; see only beauty and positive action; then let it go out beyond your own personal radiating circle. If your thought touches on people, include them in this positive projection. Do not plan things for them, just see every thing as beautiful for them. Let your imagination see love, beauty, peace, and positive action take place. As you try this a little each day, try expanding your thoughts and this positive projection of imagination a little farther away from home base each day. Start with yourself. See yourself as if you were the main character in a play, as you act out the part of positive beauty and love for yourself and all others. See the others come on to the stage and see yourself mentally including them in this action. Then see your stage expand. Your stage is the theater, the block, the town, the country, the world, and each person you mentally see is to be included in this play of imagination. Each person, including the milkman, mailman, friend, teacher, student, etc., is to be included in this stage. In our play the stage can be a small room or the whole world. The mind has no limitation as to what can be accomplished if this is done with love, desire for whatever is right for those involved on our stage. If done in this way, then you have started on the path of Light. It's so simple! Now find a teacher who can teach you the fine points and keep you headed in the right direction. Become a part of the daily increasing cast of the "Play of Light".

FEATURING

OCTOBER 10-20 Bay Area

Ann Jensen

One of Americas' Most Gifted Psychics

was born with a rare gift of God, "knowing the unknown."

Her talents in the psychic world are limitless — encompassing reading the human aura, crystal ball reading, psychometry, automatic writing, grapho-analysis, clairvoyance, out-of-body experience and many other phases of psychic awareness. With such awesome talent, Mrs. Jensen is in constant demand for her captivating lectures, demonstrations and in-depth workshops and seminars on ESP and the psychic world.

She recalls a childhood with two psychically gifted parents so it is small wonder that at age three, she was reading the preacher's mind during Sunday service and telling the congregation in her childlike way that he was thinking about getting married but talking about something else. At age seven she knew of her father's death before being told and emotionally dissolved when she became clairvoyantly aware of the impending death of her brother-in-law when she was thirteen.

A native of Texas, Ann Jensen is the mother of two outstanding sons — one a doctor, the other an active church leader and music store owner. With her husband, Andrew, she resides in a beautiful colonial home located in a quiet, wooded suburb of Dallas.

Mrs. Jensen emphatically defends ESP against the skeptics who compare it to witchcraft or black magic. She feels it is a sacred, God-given gift to everyone, but selfishness and prejudice have strangled this ESP, psychic or soul quality in most people. Ann can look at you for a few moments and know a great deal about you, your family and your background.

Mrs. Jensen teaches and lectures throughout the United States and Mexico on ESP and how to open these psychic centers within ourselves. Besides the lectures and entertainment for which a psychic is in demand, she receives a constant stream of requests for help and does "see" individuals professionally as time permits.

When Ann Jensen speaks publicly, from the moment she assumes the podium, the audience is hers, with love, interest and respect.

A member of the Christian Church, Mrs. Jensen is keenly aware that her psychic power is a sacred gift. "As a psychic," she explains, "I have always felt I have access to a power that comforts, strengthens and aids. I reach this power through prayer. Many times the prayer is wordless. It is just the shifting of my awareness into a certain flow in which I am centered. I know I am the child of a Father of love, compassion and wisdom. This is a very tender and personal love. I know all people have this God within them and that He loves all even as He loves me. The word psychic is from the word psyche, which means soul," she says. "Everyone has a soul and the soul is God within." People must be trained to become aware of God in one another. We are all brothers, no matter what we feel." Mrs. Jensen says that, "when my psychic power is 'turned on,' I get a sense of levitation and heightened awareness." She feels completely passive, "afloat in the cosmic stream."

She believes that, like muscular strength, psychic strength can be developed through exercise. One of the principal exercises is learning to concentrate. In her classes she recommends this simple exercise for beginners: Put a bowl of water in a still place — no drafts. Float a toothpick on the water. Wait till everything is still. Concentrate on the toothpick and make it move. It is as simple as that.

Psychometry

Psychometry is a process in which an object, such as a watch, is held by the psychic. Through vibrations activated within the mind, the object projects mental images of the past and future of the owner. To Ann Jensen, psychometry means getting into the aura of the object. By holding the object you will begin to have different feelings. Always speak what you feel. You will hear names, see places, feel different things happening around the object.

Express these feelings because the sensitive does not always know the importance of some seemingly minor details. Psychometry is a new and useful tool today in the field of crime detection.

Testing

Ann Jensen is widely known among psychic investigators. She has done controlled experimental work in laboratories at Duke University with Dr. J. B. Rhine, Dean of Parapsychologists; with the late Eileen Garrett, President of the Parapsychology Foundation; and with Dr. Karlos Osis, Director of the American Society for Psychical Research in New York City.

In 1940 Mrs. Jensen and Dr. Joseph H. Rush did an experiment in long distance thought-transference that was evaluated and documented in the "Journal of Parapsychology" (June 1941) by Dr. J. B. Rhine. The experiment dealt with a period from April to August when she and Dr. Rush sat each evening at a specified time and sent mental messages to each other. Each recorded the messages they sent and those they received. The results show correlation far above chance, providing strong evidence for telepathic communication.

"WORDS" for Sept.

"The Guru is a realized soul who has already solved this mystery of life and who can give one a demonstration of how to rise above body consciousness as a beginning.... It is this lack of realization of what we really are, that causes us to direct our whole outlook on life from the body's level. This is a very powerful delusion."

Here is a book as complex and individual as you are. It's not light reading because it's your life, your astral biography, from the details of your inner feelings to your outermost ambitions.

Sun-Moon polarity, as the connection between conscious drives and unconscious feelings, is discussed at great length.

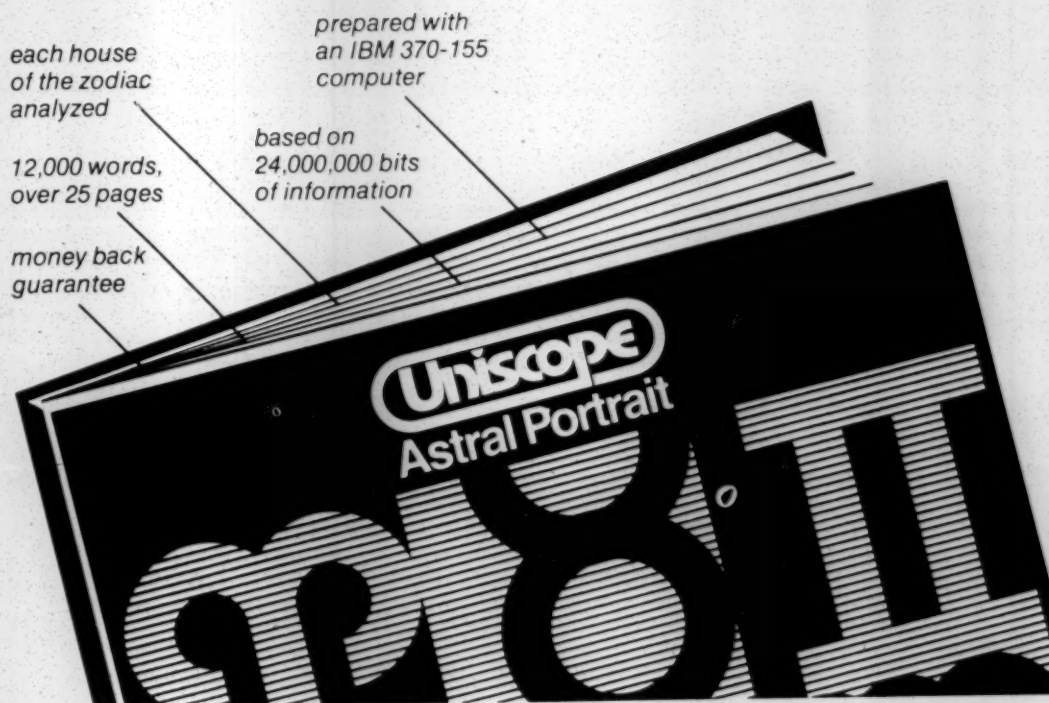

The ascending sign and its rulership position is interpreted as your personality, as your approach to life. Each house of the zodiac is described in terms of planets, rulerships and aspects.

This is not a vague report based on generalities. From your exact time, day, year and place of birth our IBM 370-155 sorts out 24,000,000 bits of astrological information. The result is a 12,000 word personal biography revealing secrets that even your closest friends would not dare talk about.

How is this possible? An astrologer does basically the same thing, but it takes longer and costs more. The computer is simply a memory bank. Only the information that applies to you and only you is drawn from the bank.

All this is yours for only $10. It's the best buy there is in computerized horoscopes. Plus a money back guarantee if your Astral Portrait isn't what you expected.

Think of it as a reference book, to be studied from time to time. We've got the best available, anywhere, at anytime... and at any price.

The Art of The Cosmos

The Art of The Cosmos, is a beautiful experience of blending colors and images that touch a deep spiritual awakening within each student. Work is done with the hands, no brush or pallet, using techniques that have been developed over many years. When the hand comes in contact with color a very strange and wonderful feeling is in store for the student . . . Classes are usually conducted with a background of music. The student has the opportunity of learning self awareness, creativity and spiritual advancement through these techniques!
